

Are you of Australian First Nations descent and interested in having a professional career?

YANUN
PROJECT SERVICES

Yanun is passionate about creating training and employment pathways for First Nations people. We believe that good quality jobs can better individuals, families and lift up our whole community.

Minimum 12 months full-time employment, with competitive salary!

First Nations Development Program

Yanun works with host organisations to provide cadetship style, on-the-job skills-based training for people who wish to kick-start their project management career and become the best version of themselves.

- ✔ Support in undertaking a Certificate 4 Project Management/Project Controls.
- ✔ Professional development support, to guide you in a new role and environment.
- ✔ Learn, develop and apply new on-the-job skills in everyday work.
- ✔ Exposure to diverse industries, including defence, mining, construction, government and international development.

To register your interest, contact us through the QR code or go to www.yanun.com.au/first-nations/